POSITIVE QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Some of us have great runways already built for us. If you have one, take off! But if you don't have one, realize it is your responsibility to grab a shovel and build one for yourself and for those who will follow after you.

~ Amelia Earhart

THE DIVERSITY CORNER

Featured Leader - Amelia Mary Earhart (born July 24, 1897; disappeared July 2, 1937; declared dead January 5, 1939) was an American aviation pioneer and writer. Earhart was the first female aviator to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean. She set many other records.

She was one of the first aviators to promote commercial air travel. She wrote best-selling books about her flying experiences, and was instrumental in the formation of The Ninety-Nines, an organization for female pilots.

Interesting Facts

- Amelia Earhart built her own roller coaster.
- Amelia Earhart was the sixteenth woman to get her pilot's license.
- Amelia Earhart was the first woman to travel across the Atlantic by plane.

POSITIVE QUOTE OF THE WEEK (SUMMARY) – The quote of the week tells us about the significance of opportunities. Some of us will be born with opportunities, while others will have to create them. Creating opportunities will not only benefit the person who is creating the opportunity but it will lay the foundation for others that follow after. Whether you were born with opportunities or whether you created them, an opportunity is a chance to show the rest of the world what an amazing person you really are!
