THE DIVERSITY CORNER

Ruth Bader Ginsburg - was born in Brooklyn, New York, (March 1933- September 2020). Ruth Bader Ginsburg was an American lawyer and jurist who served as an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States from 1993 until her death in 2020. She was nominated by President Bill Clinton to replace retiring justice Byron White, and at the time was viewed as a moderate consensus-builder. Ginsburg was the first Jewish woman and the second woman to serve on the Court, after Sandra Day O'Connor.

Jewish American Heritage Month - recognizes Jewish contributions to American culture, history, military, science, government, and more. In 2006, President George W. Bush proclaimed May as Jewish American Heritage Month.

POSITIVE QUOTE OF THE WEEK (SUMMARY) – This quote reminds us that some of the most valuable lessons we learn are the ones we learn from each other. Sometimes we have to just slow down and take the time to listen to others and when we actually listen, we may find the valuable answers that we desperately need.
