

Immigrant & Refugee Ministry

Annual Report 2024

CELEBRATE COMMUNITY!!

Bringing diverse groups together in solidarity, IRM celebrates our community with:

- Intercultural Community Nights
- Annual Migration Mass
- Pilgrimage of Solidarity at the Border
- Advocacy and Education Events

150+ FAMILIES SERVED

$22,538.83 OF RENT AND UTILITY ASSISTANCE

One of the biggest needs we see among immigrants and refugees is access to decent, affordable housing. Our assistance is helping our neighbors stay sheltered.

650 + VOLUNTEER HOURS

Our team of a dozen volunteers provides material and spiritual support, serves as tutors, assists with language interpretation, visits our neighbors, and distributes donated items to families in need.

$68,000 IN GRANTS

We are grateful to the Annual Catholic Appeal, the Incarnate Word Foundation, and St. Martha Giving Circle for their grant awards. We thank our many donors, especially our 6 IRM parishes and Annunziata St. Vincent De Paul Conference for their constant financial support!

THE WHOLE WORLD!

Immigrants and refugees we accompany come from all statuses and backgrounds as well as a variety of nations of origin including: Afghanistan, Nigeria, Honduras, Congo, Ukraine, Haiti, Venezuela, Iraq, Colombia, Myanmar, Nicaragua, Sudan, and many more!

Immigrant & Refugee Ministry

OUR MISSION

A Collaborative, Welcoming Ministry

of St. Anthony of Padua, St. Cronan, St. Margaret of Scotland,
St. Pius V, St. Vincent De Paul, and St. Stephen Protomartyr

Assisting and Accompanying our newly-arrived neighbors

Advocating and Educating for justice for those who have resettled in our community

Empowering
immigrants, refugees, and the Catholic community to build and flourish together
